

In remembrance of

Eva Romeling

On Saturday March 6, 2010 the Mark Bric companies family lost one of its important and loved members. All of the employees of the Mark Bric companies in the United States were saddened by her death.

Eva Romeling har played an important part in the success of the companies, especially in the setup of the Display business which she pioneered. Her contributions to our business activities has benefited all of us privileged to work with her.

Eva will be in our heart and minds and will be missed by all that have had the opportunity to know her.

From her friends at
MARK BRIC INC & MARK BRIC DISPLAY, USA
